

Welcome to Stevenage Old Town Historic High Street

As one of Hertfordshire's most attractive and quintessentially British High Streets, the Historic Stevenage Old Town High Street provides an attractive destination to visit. For the discerning customer, it offers a vast range of professional, unique retail and personal care services, an amazing arts and leisure offering, with its own Art Gallery, "Swan Gallery" on the green. Plus, there is a gastronomie of food and drink on offer for all food and drink connoisseurs and a superb boutique hotel, oozing with vintage charm to lay down and safely snooze away once the day is over.

Enjoy world class food and drink

For those looking to tantalise their taste buds, there is an abundance of world cuisine on offer. From traditional fish and chips and rump steaks to tapas, paella, cheeky churros, mezes, baklava, tasty kebabs, noodles, stir-fries, to a taste of the orient or a curry in a hurry, the Old Town High Street provides quality and choice to eat in or take away.

Enjoy cocktails, mocktails, gins, craft beers or a pint or two at the many licenced taverns and pubs, all which come with a welcoming smile and a familiar ambience. Ladies who Lunch, posh afternoon teas, fresh baked sour dough bread and a plethora of baked goods, cups of chai, barista coffees or a good cup of English tea can all be found at the many eateries and independent cafes found in the nooks and crannies of the High Street.

Kick back and relax

For the musically minded we have recording and rehearsal studios and some of the best vinyl and guitar shops in the county. Why not come along and watch West End performers and even experience Summer Music Festival vibes on the street with our annual music festival, which showcases over 60 local artists from our outdoor stages and at our many licenced premises.

From a simple treatment to a full day of pampering, we have got it covered. Book a pedicure, massage, facial, aesthetic procedure, holistic session and keep your trestles well-groomed, crimped and looking dapper at our array of barbers and salons.

Gifting and occasions

If you are throwing a party or spoiling someone special, we have cards, balloons, gifts, petals, and blooms, with fragrant fresh flowers all available for all your life's occasions. For tux or tails and a dress for that special day for the bride and groom visit our wedding shop and artisan jewellers for hand crafting a droplet, pendant or linking a chain.
