

The SADA Modern Slavery Service, is a service for everyone, we aim to support and signpost people found to be Modern Slaves.

Helping you to feel safe, secure, protected and empowered

SADA Modern Slavery Service

A dedicated liaison worker will signpost clients to agencies where they can offer support covering a wide range of areas.

- 1 to 1 Support
- Provision of support for families and children experiencing modern slavery
- Multi-agency approach
- Safeguarding process
- Support for those from other geographical areas
- Training staff and raising awareness
- Referrals to the NRM
- Open to Men and Women

Contact details

Domestic Abuse Service

Community safety team

 01438 242666

 modern.slavery@stevenage.gov.uk

Daneshill House

Danestrete

Stevenage

SG1 1HN

In an emergency always call the Police on 999

To report a non-emergency call 101

NORTH HERTFORDSHIRE
DISTRICT COUNCIL

BOROUGH COUNCIL

The SADA Modern Slavery Service

How can we help?

Initial Contact

Receive initial contact details by police, agency or in person

Crisis intervention

Support client to join the NRM, help them to seek safety via salvation army and to signpost on to external partners and services

To Panel

External and internal partners meet every 12 weeks to discuss and share information to ensure and deliver client led support.

Reviews and Outcomes

Review, support and set desired client focused outcomes

